

Milliya Arts, Science and Management Science College, Beed

Code of Conduct

01. No panels of the candidates shall be formed the purpose of election at any stage, whatsoever
02. The maximum permissible expenditure per candidate of the election of Class Representative shall be Rs.1000 and for the election of President, Secretary, Lady Representative of Reserved Category shall be Rs.5000.
03. Each candidate shall have to submit within two weeks of the declaration of the result, the self attested statement of expenditure in Form 'B' appended with this order along with the serially numbered self-attested copies of vouchers to the Election Officer.
04. No candidate shall make use of any symbol or logo or photo or image of any political party, other organization and any other person, including any religious or cast or social organization or persons during the election campaign.
05. No candidate shall be allowed to carry out procession or rally in the college or institution or University campus during the election campaign.
06. Entry to the College or institution or University campus without a valid identity card of that college or institution or University shall be strictly prohibited on the day of polling.
07. The use of public address system and vehicles and any other conveyance for the purpose of election campaign shall be prohibited on the college or institution or University.
08. The election Officer shall notify the designated display places in the campus which can be used by the candidates for hoarding their posters. The allocation of space at such designated display places to the Election Officer.
09. No candidate shall indulge in, nor shall abate any activity which may aggravate differences or create mutual hatred, rivalry and tension among groups of students.
10. No candidates and his supporters shall deface or destruction to the property of college or institution or university in the manner whatsoever it may be.
11. The entry to any unauthorized person on the campus of the college or institution or university and at the polling center shall be strictly prohibited during the entire process of election.

12. Each candidate shall undertake to proactively support the Authorities in maintaining peace and harmony on the campus of the college or institution or university during the process of election.
13. In case of contravention of any of the provisions of code of conduct by any candidate, the election Officer may initiate appropriate disciplinary action of the his candidature. The aggrieved person shall be due opportunity of being heard before taking the final decision in this process.
14. The provisions of Indian Penal Code relating “Offences relating to elections” shall be applicable to these students election . Objectionable incidences may be reported to the police within twelve hours after alleged commission of offence for registering case.
15. It shall be the duty of all teaching and non teaching staff of the college or institution or university to undertake any work, responsibility assigned by the Election Officer in the process of election.