College Beed.

Introduction :

In 1757 British has established their rule to defeat Bengal Nawab Siraj-Ud-Daulla in Plasi battle, then after some days British interfered in political, trade and economic field because of that public also protested against their policies and stand in different movement. In 1857 a big Lava was busted against the British but they successfully faced it. Under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi and Maulana Abul Kalam Azad agitations were run up against the British in India, which were Non-Co-operative movement, Salt Satyagrah, Savinay Kayde bhang, Khilafat movement etc and finally we got freedom from British rule on 15th August 1947.

Many freedom fighter were contributed for freedom of India, few of them were in lime light and we peoples know them, as they are focused in text books and news papers. Despite of such freedom fighters, there are many such who were hidden from our knowledge and reading. These freedom fighters have lost their lives, properties so in order to enlighten such freedom fighters and to bring in knowledge their contribution to students as well as faculties, department of History decided to organize this contest.
