Milliya Arts, Science &
Management Science College, Beed.

Institution's Policy for providing Financial Support to economically backward students:

1. The college will provide the financial support to the poorer students.
2. Financial support will be continued by means of PSF (Poor Student Fund) which has already been in existence since 2008-09. It has been contributed by the faculties.
3. The faculties will always be motivated to continue their contribution to the PSF.
4. Other stakeholder such as regular students, Alumnae and well wishers of the institute may be motivated to contribute to the PSF.
5. The poorer students may be provided financial aid for paying Admission and examination fees.
6. This policy will be executed by means of committee. The committee will investigate to ascertain whether the student is really poorer and deserving and then provide him/her the financial aid through the specific process.
