

Political Science

Course Outcomes:

This course enables the student-

To understand the basic structure and various dimensions of the Indian Constitution.

To analyse the contemporary political system by using the political ideas.

To analyse the different political systems and understand the importance of democracy.

To develop civic responsibility among themselves.

To be familiar with various constitutional rights and duties of the Indian Citizens.

To be aware of secularism, liberty, equality, justice and brotherhood.

To understand the interrelationship between the centre and state governments in India.

To be aware of the party politics in India.

To know the work and thoughts of Indian Political Thinkers.

To understand the rules, regulations, structure and nature of governance of Maharashtra

Government & Political System.

To understand the different aspects of traditional and contemporary Ideologies.