

Course Outcomes of Urdu

- Language the medium of expression we cannot explain our views, thoughts and expressions without using the language. Without language we can do nothing because only body language will not be work efficiently.
- The language of Urdu is a product and symbol of the common culture of Indian Society. To learn and teach Urdu is a great service of this country and its people.
- The literature of every language is a reflection of creative possibilities. Urdu language is having a very fertile creative literature to teach this language and its literature is essential for the evolution and development of future generation.
- This degree course enables the students to go for various Urdu language related jobs.
- They can also become clergymen in Masjids for religious activities and it uplift.
- Those who have passed B.A. with Urdu as a main subject can apply in prestigious Indian Armed Force as Maulvi (religious teacher) with a rank of Junior Commissioned Officer (JCO).
- Job opportunities in various fields as a teacher, translator, interpreter, etc.