Objectives of the Readers Club:

- To inculcate the importance of reading among the students.
- To motivate and encourage the students for reading.
- To infuse love for reading among the students.
- To improve the reading skills of the students.
- To improve the analytical sense of the students.
- To improve the reviewing abilities of the students.
- By means of reading, to inculcate Social, Moral, Spiritual and Human Values in the students.
- To organize different activities based on reading and reviewing the books, stories, poetry, article, paper cuttings, etc.

Functioning of the Readers Club:

- In the beginning, the student readers will be motivated to read the books, stories, poetry and articles in their mother tongue and other vernacular media till the interest of reading is developed among them.
- Gradually, they will be motivated to read English short stories, essays, articles, poetry and so on.
- The books, articles, texts will be provided to the students.
- Students will assemble occasionally to have discussions on the given book/text.
- At least two or three students will be encouraged to express their views and reflections on the book/text.

- Then all the students will be encouraged to express, share and exchange their reflections.
- Finally, the teacher will put his own views and reflections.
- For the sake of motivation and appreciation, the avid readers and reviewers will be felicitated and given prizes.
- A separate library of the Readers' Club will be developed.
- The faculties of humanities and even other disciplines will be encouraged to donate or lend their personal books/rare book for the library of Reader's Club.
